

I am completely against this violation of privacy and first amendment rights. Please do not enforce something like this. The beautiful thing about the internet is the ability to be anonymous. I do not want to live in a country where its government does not trust its citizens. Reading our email tells us that you do not trust us and also breaks whatever trust we still had, off.